PRO-TEC TOE

Ringor Footwear is offered with or without Pro-Tec Toes. The protective toe is glued and stitched on during the manufacturing process and will substantially prolong the life of the footwear. Pro-Tec Toes are most often worn by pitchers and catchers, but are recommended for any athlete who needs added durability.

Zonal coverage designed to protect the most common drag styles

Added at the time the shoe is made for maximum durability

Made of Tuff-Tread Rubber
