

International Team Tours

AIST is Celebrating 20 years of service in 2021!

American International Sports Teams Inc. (AIST) is a full-service custom sports tour organization providing teams, groups and individuals with professionally organized international tours. We handle all logistics, games and excursions so you can enjoy the international experience with your team.

Enjoy these benefits and more when you book with AIST:

-  First class service and quality
-  Private AIST tour manager throughout your tour
-  Local bi-lingual guides
-  Cultural experience of a lifetime
-  Build team unity
-  Educational sightseeing excursions
-  Compete against international clubs or national teams
-  Great recruiting tool to bring in athletes to your program
-  10 additional practice sessions with your team – prior to departure
-  Mission and service options available
-  Student athletes can earn credits toward a degree
-  Free travel for head coaches

NCAA allows foreign tours for division I and II schools once every 4 years, division III can go every 3 years. Take advantage of our incredible destinations and enjoy peace of mind knowing that AIST will take care of all your travel needs throughout your tour. View sample tours here: www.aist.us/sample-itineraries.

Individual athletes: AIST select teams represent the USA annually in international tournaments or exhibition tours. Athletes are welcome from all levels of college as well as high school and youth ages. Join our teams traveling abroad in several different sports and destinations around the world. Go to: www.aist.us/player-profile.

816.256.3828

info@aist.us | www.AIST.us