

OPP Lab

The 5,000-square-foot Osteopathic Principles and Practice (OPP) Laboratory is equipped with numerous height-adjustable tables and an overhead projection system that displays to TV monitors located around the room. The lab is spacious and open without obstructive structural columns to increase visibility during curricular activities.