

HIGHER EDUCATION

Title IX Services

Jackson Lewis P.C. has the skills and experience to help higher education institutions make an IMPACT on Title IX sexual misconduct compliance.

Sexual assault prevention has always been a critical goal for colleges and universities, but compliance with these laws has become increasingly complex. Higher education now faces scrutiny from federal agencies, the media, students, parents, alumni and the community. We help clients navigate the law in a way that remains true to institutional missions and core values, and addresses the concerns of these various constituencies.

IMPACT

We help higher education institutions make an IMPACT on campus – from instituting policies and procedures to assisting with training and investigations and everything in between.

- I: Assisting in conducting appropriate INVESTIGATIONS to ensure that complaints are adequately addressed. Jackson Lewis attorneys are trained in proper techniques for investigating allegations of sexual assault and misconduct.
- M: Assisting education institutions in MONITORING compliance policies and structures. We help institutions assess where they stand under the latest prevention expectations and best practices.
- P: Creating, revising and implementing POLICIES AND PROCEDURES which comply with Title IX, the Campus SAVE Act and applicable state laws. We assist in developing policies and procedures that meet legal standards and fit your institution's campus culture and core values.
- A: ADVOCATING for educational institutions facing litigation and governmental inquiries. Jackson Lewis attorneys have represented hundreds of institutions across the country and in front of various governmental bodies.
- C: COUNSELING our educational clients on implementation of sound, legally compliant sexual assault policies. We help with every stage of Title IX compliance to identify solutions which work for your campus.
- T: TRAINING management, faculty, investigators and students on their rights, duties and obligations under the law. We provide “train the trainer” programs, and can help educational institutions design and implement a comprehensive training program.

Jackson Lewis attorneys offer a full range of services related to Title IX compliance, which we tailor to each institution's needs. Our team of highly trained professionals, including former university in-house counsel and university administrators, former state department of education lawyers and current and former educators, knows what it takes to comply with the ever-evolving rules and regulations in this area. We assist our clients in instituting a climate of awareness and prevention for all members of the educational community.
