Our membership includes forward thinking professionals from wineries, vineyards, academic institutions and various organizations...

“ The ASEV technical meetings, together with the published research findings, offer a broad menu of ways to learn more about wine and winegrowing systems. The Society is also a conduit to researchers and leads to one-on-one contact.

— PHIL FREESE,

“ ASEV has really created a network and provided me with access to people throughout the country who I can email, ask questions and interact with at any given time. That is so invaluable.

— MEGAN HALL
2017 ASEV PRESIDENTS' AWARD
RECIPIENT

“ I believe that ASEV membership is essential to having a fully rounded and grounded wine/vine career. I wanted to work at the top of my profession and ASEV facilitated that in many ways.
