

LEARN HOW YOU CAN PROFIT...

from membership and our industry expertise

Allied Grape Growers (AGG), a California winegrape growers association with hundreds of grower-members statewide, exists specifically for the purpose of effective and competitive marketing of its members' winegrapes.

Because AGG is formed as a cooperative, grower-members are the owners and receive all the benefits of ownership.

AGG has active working relationships with numerous grape buyers statewide, providing its grower-members with the most winegrape marketing opportunities possible and providing grape buyers with a reliable and diverse selection of winegrapes.

AGG is truly a grower's association, representing growers' interests and negotiating on their behalf, all while working cooperatively with buyers and industry participants to maintain overall market stability.

When evaluating AGG, consider these benefits:

- Time Savings:
 - Active & continuous grape marketing
 - Year-round communications
- Risk Mitigation:
 - Grape contract enforcement
 - Evaluation of buyer creditworthiness
 - Collection & distribution of grape & wine proceeds

- Expertise:
 - Professional grape contract negotiators
 - Trained & experienced market analysts
 - Knowledgeable & equipped field staff
- Monetary:
 - 45-day grower payment schedule
 - Accommodating buyer payment schedules
 - Advance & deferral programs for growers
 - Group insurance programs with discounts
 - Growers retain profits from operations
 - Low cost
- Extended Marketability:
 - Active connections with hundreds of top grape buyers
 - Diversity of supply for market leverage
 - Optional bulk wine program.

Let AGG bring the grape market to you!

AGG STAFF

www.alliedgrapegrowers.org

contactus@alliedgrapegrowers.org