

WINE TASTING RETURNS TO SUISUN VALLEY

State Officials Lift Regional Stay at Home Order

California officials have lifted the regional stay at home order statewide as four-week ICU capacity projections exceed 15% for impacted regions, including the Bay Area.

Solano County is returning to the Purple Tier. This means that many services and activities, including wine tasting and outdoor dining, may resume immediately with required modifications.

We encourage you to check each winery's social media pages for up to date hours and services. Many have built and expanded patios and seating areas to create memorable outdoor wine tasting experiences for guests. We look forward to seeing you soon in Suisun!

MANKAS GRILL

Mankas Grill is now offering delicious BBQ to-go from outside their restaurant every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The menu changes weekly and the talented chefs cook and prepare their food as you order it. Ribs, tri-tip, chicken, tacos, chili - is your mouth watering yet? Pick up a late lunch or early dinner from 2 pm to 6 pm. Check Mankas Grill's social pages for their weekly menu.

MANGELS VINEYARDS

Mangels Vineyards has created a lovely atrium on their patio for guests to enjoy wine tasting while being sheltered from the weather. Enjoy a glass or bottle of your favorite or try some new wine! Mangels recently released their newest Syrah (2017 vintage) as well as the Chenin Blanc Viognier. Meanwhile, it will not be long now before Mangels guests can enjoy one of our favorite winter traditions - their sheep in the vineyard fields! Mangels is open Friday-Sunday, 12 pm to 5 pm.

ERICKSON RANCH JAMS

The city of Fairfield's "In Your City" recently sat down with Erickson Ranch owners Victoria and Ray Erickson to discuss the history of their farm, their flourishing jam business, and the exciting plans they have for the future. The Erickson family has been farming in Suisun Valley for three generations! Ray Erickson was born and raised here and he and Victoria raised their own daughters on the family farm. For many years, the Erickson family operated a seasonal fruit market on their property. Since 2017, their focus has been on their hand-made jams, all prepared with fruit from their property. You can purchase their jams online or at several locations throughout Suisun Valley, including Il Fiorello Olive Oil Company and Cal Yee Farms.
