

Supplier of the World's Finest

Your dream creations deserve the finest closures.

The two most important decisions for your fine beverage packaging are the container and the closure. Only the best is used for your best.

Nature has given us cork (Quercus Suber) and time has proven its value. Now, technology gives us choices. We source the world's best cork closures from Europe's finest producers. Our experts at Saxco can offer all you want to meet your needs for quality and price. From the best individually tested, non-detectable TCA, natural wine corks to our unrivaled microagglomerated closures with proven results worldwide.
